

Zafiris Tzannatos

Dr Zafiris Tzannatos is an economist based in Jordan, a Senior Fellow at the Jordan Strategy Forum in Amman, and the Lebanese Center for Policy Studies in Lebanon where he was previously Professor and Chair of the Economics Department at the American University of Beirut.

Between 1992 and 2008 he held senior positions at the World Bank, including as Advisor to Managing Director, Manager for Labor Markets and Social Protection in the Middle East and North Africa Region (MENA), and Leader of the Global Child Labor Program that he founded. He also set up the labor program at the World Bank having designed and organized the first capacity-building workshop in 1993.

More recently, he was Senior Advisor at UNDP Regional Bureau for the Arab States (Amman) and before that for Afghanistan, the ILO Regional Office for Arab States (ILO, Beirut) and for governments in the Middle East and the GCC – including Lebanon (Ministry of Social Affairs), Qatar (Planning Council), and the UAE (Abu Dhabi, General Secretariat of the Executive Council) as well as for several international and regional consulting firms.

Since 1979 he has held academic, research and honorary positions in several universities in the UK, visited more than 80 countries and worked with regional and international organizations as well as governments of industrialized, transition, emerging and developing economies, and fragile/in-conflict countries across all continents. He is referee to many publishing houses, and academic and policy journals.

He has nearly 300 publications including 15 books in the areas of development strategy, labor, education, skills development, gender, child labor and broader social policy. His current research is on the post-2010 developments in the Arab region, the GCC, and the EuroMed.

He received his First Degree (Econ) Summa Cum Laude from the University of Athens; Doctorate in Economics at the University of London; and Executive Education offered jointly by Harvard University, J.F. Kennedy School of Government, Stanford Business School and Institut Européen d'Administration des Affaires (INSEAD).
